Job Bank Youth Participation Procedures

Job Bank Participants: please initial each statement below to indicate that you have read and understand. If you have questions, please ask the job bank coordinator for clarification prior to completion.

Initial

- _____ 1. Applicants are eligible for participation in the job bank as of their 13th birthday and age out of eligibility as of their 19th birthday.
- _____ 2. An official job bank application must be completed in its entirety - including references.
- _____ 3. References will be verified before an applicant is interviewed.
- _____ 4. A ½ hour interview will be scheduled with a job bank coordinator to discuss an applicant's interest, availability and participation in the job bank.
- _____ 5. The applicant—not the parent and/or guardian—must set up the job bank interview. Interviewing skills are an essential part of the job bank process. If you are not confident in your interview skills, please call the NYFS office to enroll in an interview skills workshop.
- _____ 6. Once accepted into the job bank you will be emailed jobs which match your interests and location. (DO NOT CALL TO FIND JOB AVAILABILITY)
- _____ 7. Do not feel obligated to take the job if you have prior commitments. There is no penalty if you don't want the job. It is better to decline the position rather than commit yourself to the job and not show up for work.
- _____ 8. If you accept the job, a job bank coordinator will contact the patron with your name, phone number and age. The patron will contact you directly to set up a day, time, and salary for the job. If that patron does not call you it may be that the job has been filled.
- _____ 9. At times, a patron will call the job bank requesting a list of youth living in their area. For this reason, you may receive a call directly from the patron. Please treat this call as you would treat a call from the job bank coordinator.
- _____ 10. Remember that it is important to follow through on all of the jobs you commit yourself to. As a member of the job bank you are not only representing yourself, but also Newtown Youth and Family Services as a whole. The cooperation of all its participants is important in maintaining a good reputation.
- _____ 11. As a part of the job bank membership process, we try to prepare youths for real life experiences. Filling out this application and attending an interview are two important parts of this experience. To learn the skills necessary for these processes, it is important that the youth fills out this application. Although help from an adult is encouraged, please be sure to answer all of the questions yourself.

The job bank coordinator will provide you with a copy of these procedures for your files.
